Julia James

“For 7 years, I was without a career and agonized over my lack of direction. I tried different jobs and worked with other career coaches, but nothing seemed right for me.

Coaching with Julia changed all this. She has an exceptional way of introducing ease and creativity to long-standing problems. I became more positive and patient with myself. Decisions started to happen naturally and surprisingly quickly.

After 3 months of coaching, I had chosen a new career based on a favourite past-time and found a job in that field.

Julia helped me make profound changes when I had almost lost hope. I can confidently recommend her services to anyone ready for a big change.”
